Student Name: _____
Age: _____
Current Grade: _____
School Name: _____

This intensive 2 week workshop will be held Monday-Friday, July 10-21, 2017. The focus is on learning realist drawing and painting techniques, with an emphasis on direct observation. Accepted applicants are required to attend each day from 10-4pm (lunch and snacks will be provided). You do not need extensive experience is this field. However, a strong drive for improving your skill level and desire to learn is essential. Up to 12 student will be accepted and gifted this opportunity. To help us get to know you, please answer the following questions in your own words.

A. Tell us about your artistic experience.

Please include what medium you most like to work with and why?

B. Describe what style of work you are most interested in.

(For example: realism, representationalism, impressionism, abstraction etc.)

C. What do you want to do with your art training long term?

(For example: become a professional fine artist, create digital artwork, graphic designer, become an animator, etc.?)

D. If you could spend two hours in a museum would you rather view traditional or more modern works of art?

Please give a brief explanation of why? (There is no right or wrong answer!)

E. Have you created work from life or direct observation (not from a photograph)?

If so please tell us about that experience including subject matter and media.

Along with this written application you must submit 3-5 digital images of your work. We would prefer work associated with direct observation but will accept any of your best recent works.

Please title each image with your last name and a title or number.
(For example: Smith1, Smith2, etc. or SmithPortriat, SmithLandscape, SmithShoes, etc.)
